JOHN DORE TO REMAIN AT CONCORDIA

Montreal, / Concordia University Director of Fitness, Recreation & Athletics Bob Philip announced today that John Dore has agreed to join Concordia University on a full-time basis as head coach of the Stinger men's basketball program.

Last year Dore managed to split his work load between his regular job as Director of Athletics of St. George's High School in Westmount and the head coaching position with the Stingers. He led the Stingers to a 25-7 record and the team's first-ever National Championship.

"Now John can concentrate on coaching basketball and his other departmental duties in marketing and promotion", said Philip. "We are very pleased to have John Dore join the Concordia coaching staff on a full-time basis. He has already accomplished so much in his rookie season, and he did it under somewhat difficult conditions."

Dore graduated from Concordia in 1975. He played for both the Loyola Warriors and the Concordia Stingers. He was assistant coach to Mike Hickey with the Stinger women's basketball team in the late seventies and then moved on to assist Doug Daigneault with the men's program for two seasons.

John and his wife Malka and daughters Lisa and Lauren are residents of the Town of Mount Royal.
